

WEBB INSTITUTE

Website & Website Article Policy

Website Policy

- The audience of the www.webb.edu website includes prospective students, parents, alumni, donors, and the general public.
- Webb Institute webpages, affiliated webpages, and electronic publications are official Webb Institute publications. Content may not be copied, modified, used on other sites or re-purposed without express, written permission from the Director of Media Relations and Communications.
- The use of the college name, symbols, emblems, logos, seal, and colors shall comply with the Branding guidelines.
- The Admissions/Student Services, Academics, and Development Departments are responsible to oversee content on this site and have full authority to remove any posting not deemed appropriate for the site.
- The Department of Media Relations and Communications only has access to the website content management system.
- The Department of Media Relations and Communications has the authority to take down or edit material that does not fit Webb's mission and branding guidelines.

Website Article Policy

- Article topics can range from sporting events, club activities, research, field trips, and S.O. sponsored events.
- Articles are to be 200 words or less and can include a photo(s).
- All people in photos must be fully clothed.
- Articles will be proofread by the Department of Media Relations and Communications and/or Registrar.
- Articles should be sent to kallegretta@webb.edu or kkoleda@webb.edu.
- If necessary, articles will be reviewed by the Academics, Admissions, or Development Departments.
- The Department of Media Relations and Communications has the right not to post or edit material that does not fit Webb's mission and branding guidelines.

298 Crescent Beach Road
Glen Cove, New York 11542-1398
Telephone: 516-671-2213 · Fax: 516-674-9838
www.webb.edu