Inga!

You've made so many hearts proud – not only for the accomplishments you've made along the way, but also for the beautiful person you are, inside and out! You have been surrounded by love, support, and a quest for knowledge all your life! You can now add Webb and its entire community of dedicated supporters to that long list! Webb has been an amazing gift for you – we saw how much you appreciated it and fully embraced its uniqueness with sincere gratitude! Now, as a college graduate, it's your turn to share that love and support by giving back - as often as you can and wherever you land - your time, talents, and money (starting with your $40 freshman deposit to the SOA)! And our wish for you is to continue finding joy in each day – it's such a beautiful world out there! That world is yours and it has never been in better hands! We love you!
